Westminster Chamber Congratulates
2010 Westminster Terrace Senior of the Year

Victoria Coots

Due to a medical condition and the loss of her husband at an early age, the Westminster Terrace Senior of the Year found herself having to face moving into an Assisted Living at an earlier age than many of the other residents. But with a smile on her face, she decided that life is what you make of it. We couldn't have asked for a better person to join our community.

Her love and compassion for all of our residents has been a blessing. She was a caregiver to her husband's grandparents until they passed. When she arrived Westminster Terrace, she jumped right in helping any way she could. Because she drives, when someone asks for a ride or to pick something up for them, she never refuses. She helps residents who have misplaced things in their room; listens with sympathy to their problems, and genuinely cares.

At Westminster Terrace there are many outings residents can participate in. Instead of being just another resident enjoying herself, the Westminster Terrace Senior of the Year pitches right in and helps the staff with whatever needs to be done. There are currently 72 residents at Westminster Terrace and not one has anything but praise for her. When the residents were asked who should be chosen for this wonderful award, there was no hesitation in naming Victoria Coots the Westminster Terrace Senior of the Year.
